Letter No. 52p, dated the 25th August 1902, from the Senior Surgeon & Sanitary Commissioner with the Govt. of Mysore.

Order thereon, No. 4401-3 dkp 200 Bangalore, dated 2nd Septr 02 with the above the Senior Surgeon forwards docket No 173 dated the 13th August 1902 received from the Health officer Mysore city, and requests Sanction to the entertainment of an additional establishment costing Rs 82/- per mensem for the Plague camp at Mysore and to the grant of an allowance of Rs 20/- per mensem to the extra Hospital Assistant, posted for Plague duty at the Plague Camp.

+ 3 male workers at Rs 12 : Rs 36/-
3 female — do — : Rs 36/-
1 male Lotia at Rs 10/- : Rs 10/-
82

2. Though in a similar case an allowance of Rs 15/- was Sanctioned by Govt. to the Hospital Assistant Plague duty in the Khanagere plague camp in accordance with the scale laid down in Govt. Pro. No. 2840-43 Mis 721-86 dated the 30th August 1898, it is not understood why the Senior Surgeon without reference to the Standing orders, now recommends the grant of an allowance of Rs 20/- per mensem to the extra Hospital Assistant in charge of the plague camp at Sagar. The allowance of 15 Rs is sanctioned

3 ~~As regards~~ The entertainment of additional establishment costing Rs 82/- per mensem, is also sanctioned. Should occasion arise in such cases the Senior Surgeon will himself ~~have ascertained~~ from the President, City Municipality, Sagar, whether the Board is or is not prepared to sanction the expenditure from Municipal funds, before addressing the Govt. on the Subject, instead of making a reference to it on a casual mention made by the Health officer in his docket.

4. The Senior S

requested to base his future recommendations for additional establishments &c on the reports of the presidents of the Municipalities or the Deputy Commissioners of Districts fully explaining the necessity for the same and specifying ~~at the same time~~ the Source from which such cost could be met.
